I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Designed for those seeking to become certified spiritual directors. Students learn the art and practice of spiritual direction through weekly practices of soul care, teaching, supervised in-class sessions, group and individual supervision, as well as providing bi-weekly spiritual direction to directees. Through these multi-faceted experiences, students explore their capacity to help others attend to God's presence in their lives while living out a theology of love for God, self and others. The two courses run consecutively from September to April. Students must register for both courses.

Prerequisites: SPIR 0700, SPIR 0610, SPIR 0609, SPIR 0601; Successful interview with the instructor (prior to June 30 for the following Fall semester); Evidence of having met with a Spiritual Director for at least one year; Reference from Spiritual Director submitted to the internship instructor. Limited enrolment.

The Spiritual Direction Internship is a two-semester course (SPIR 0710, fall semester, and SPIR 0711, winter semester). Both must be taken consecutively.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Formulate a theological and biblical foundation for the practice of spiritual direction and practice theological reflection as the basis for ongoing conversion.
2. Employ hospitable, deep listening as a means helping others attend more deeply to God's presence and leading in their lives.
3. Appraise and employ wisdom from key authors and literature pertaining to the ancient roots and contemporary practices of spiritual direction.
4. Explain key components related to spiritual formation and direction, including but not limited to the contours of a healthy growing faith and spiritual pathways; deepening intimacy and prayer, God image, discernment, self-image and self-awareness; theological reflection, sin, suffering, forgiveness and healing; community, cultural sensitivity and growth "for the sake of others" (Reference: Spiritual Direction Competencies, 2023-2024).
5. Practice listening prayer, ongoing reflection and supervision as well as maintaining ethical boundaries as essential to personal maturation and integrity of practice.
6. Recognize one's gifts and growing edges, posture and ongoing discernment related to the (ongoing) call of spiritual direction.

D. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

E. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. This is an internship for spiritual directors in formation. Interns are required to attend and fully participate in all scheduled classes: Wednesdays, 2:15 - 5:05 PM. Also required: attendance and participation at the orientation class on September 6, 2023 (10:00 am – 3:00 pm)
2. Interns are required to offer six sessions of spiritual direction to a minimum of five (5) “Directees” each outside class hours on a bi-weekly basis. Total number of spiritual direction hours: a minimum of 30 hours per semester. Those wishing to meet with more than eight (8) Directees require permission from the Instructor. (Note: All accrued supervised hours will be credited towards the CSD designation).

3. Interns are required to continue receiving personal spiritual direction on a regular basis. It is a prerequisite to have received spiritual direction for the immediate year before the practicum and to continue in receiving individual spiritual direction throughout the Practicum year. Retreat in Daily Life (RDL) fall dates to be confirmed. The RDL will substitute for personal spiritual direction during the Fall Term.
4. Interns are required to prepare and present for triads with supervision.
5. Interns will send their assigned Supervisor reflective work as per class guidelines on the Friday before their supervision appointment (grace day: Saturday).
6. Fall Semester: in-class practice and discussion plus three reflection + horizon analysis papers. Winter Semester: developing facility with the CRF (Contemplative Reflection Form); continued in-class practice, discussion and written work. Due: On-going throughout the term
7. Forums: Share resources and questions with other Interns (top of class page). Occasional forum questions will be posted for class responses.
8. Submit a 12-14 page 2-part paper reflection and research paper (See Section H of this syllabus regarding guidelines) at the end of the Fall Term: a) Reflect on your personal prayer and experience (3 pages) and horizon analysis (1 page) in round three, and b) Research an area for deeper study and growth emerging from your practice of spiritual direction this semester (8-10 pages). Include cover page and page numbers. If emailing paper format Subject Line as "Round #, year, first initial, last name." See Section H of this syllabus for academic Guidelines. DUE December 13, 2024.
9. Submit an 18-20 page 3-part paper including personal reflection and horizon analysis (4 pages), research related to an emerging question and/or area of competency as a spiritual director (9-11 pages) plus learning drawn from your CRFs (6-8 pages). These should highlight personal transformation and growth, skill development throughout the year and ongoing, personal discernment of the ministry of spiritual direction. It can draw from class soul care, teaching, reading and research discoveries, triad work and supervision, the prayer guide, journaling and ongoing reflection during the Winter Term. Lastly, it should identify how you have been personally challenged and transformed through your time at Tyndale highlighting your internship year and practices you have incorporated into your rhythm of life. A final paragraph should identify what you see as your calling, passion and focus of ministry. This serves as a personalized mission statement for you. FORMAT: Include 1) 3-page Reflection + HA per Round 6. 2) Research Paper. 3). Competencies paper. Appendix I: one-page summary of your 24 hour retreat. Appendix 2: 6 CRFs. Appendix 3: Log of Hours (or delay Hours Log until May 30. You will receive your certificate once your Hours Log is turned in). DUE April 10, 2024.

10. Competency Interview the week of April 16-18, 2024 (by appointment).

F. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

H. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

All written work must be emailed to the Instructor at sbradimore@tyndale.ca using this format ONLY for naming file attachments: name, title, date (e.g. TSmith, Reflection Paper 1-Oct 2023).

For proper citation style, consult the tip sheet, “Documenting Chicago Style” (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241 from the Chicago Manual of Style or reference the tip sheet, “How to Cite Sources in Theology”.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism (including improper use of artificial intelligence programs). Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean’s Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.
