Tyndale Undergraduate students may enroll in this course under the following course code:

CHRI 3563

NOTE: This course is joint-listed between Undergraduate Studies and Seminary. It is a graduate level course and operates on the Seminary schedule related to reading days, start and end of semester, exam schedule and according to the Seminary Academic Calendar.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Examines the theological principles and practical ministry strategies involved in evangelism and discipleship. Several models of evangelism and discipleship will be explored, including both the content and the methods. Valuable for anyone in ministry who has the final goals of evangelism and discipleship.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Articulate how evangelism is rooted in scripture and name how the gospel of Jesus is the good news that transforms humanity [Readings, class discussions, Personal Evangelism Project].
2. Construct and describe, in language comprehensible to non-Christians: (a) an overview of the Biblical story, (b) the gospel of Jesus Christ, and (c) the mission of the Church [In-class exercises, Personal Evangelism Project].
3. Discern the current challenges of evangelism and articulate the theological implications concerning human and divine partnership in the process of salvation and discipleship [Personal Evangelism Project, Community Integrative Project part 1].
4. Identify key theological questions in building missional communities and construct tools and systems for sharing the faith via discipleship in both individual and group settings [Personal Evangelism Project, Community Integrative Project part 2].

D. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

E. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Livestream Class Participation and Weekly Reading; 10% of final grade

Read (prior to class) the assigned reading for that class, come ready to discuss. Be prepared to share your response to the reading and/or possible application.

Participation: Every absence and lateness will lower this grade and more than 3 unexcused absences are grounds for course failure. See the Academic Calendar for the excused absence policy.

This mark will be a combination of self-evaluation and evaluation by the instructor.

This requirement is related to all outcomes.

2. Personal Evangelism Prep: Due on Wednesday, October 12; 25% of final grade.

This assignment will be a written compilation of two parts:

Part 1. Personal Jesus Story: Write a three-minute personal Jesus story for a non-believing reader or audience using language that is understandable for anyone. Incorporate bible verses and/or themes.

Part 2. Gospel Story Sharing: Write a two-minute “elevator speech” that explains “this is who Jesus is to me”. This should be a concise sharing of the gospel story and/or unpacking of a key bible verse related to salvation in Jesus.

We will be presenting both in class on October 12 as preparation for the next assignment.

This requirement is related to outcomes 1, 2, and 3.

3. Personal Evangelism Project: Due on Wednesday, November 9; 30% of final grade.

Seize a God-given opportunity to share your personal Jesus story and/or gospel presentation and/or bible passage with someone God has placed in your sphere of missional influence. In reference to our course material, write a paper based on your responses and theological reflection on the conversation.

The first part of the paper should briefly describe what you decided to share, why you chose this method of personal evangelism (personal Jesus story, gospel presentation, bible passage), and how you shared it. In the second part, reflect on the encounter considering the course material and answer the following questions, and more: Who did God lead you to share with? How did you feel the conversation went? What was their response? Were there surprises for you? What did you learn from the conversation? What did you learn about the process of evangelism and discipleship? How will you follow-up, if possible?

Length: 5-7 pages double spaced.

This requirement is related to outcomes 2 and 4.

4. Community Integrative Project: Due on Friday, December 9; 35% of final grade.

This project will be a written compilation of two parts:

Part 1. Personal Philosophy of Evangelism and Discipleship: Write a 5-page reflection on your theological understanding of evangelism and discipleship and how you plan to implement this practically in your everyday personal life. Refer to course readings and material in your theological reflection.

Part 2. Community Discipleship Plan: Design a 7-page concrete discipleship plan to support your ministry context to become more missional by reflecting on the following and more:

- a) Assess the demographic of your ministry context and what the barriers may be to living a missional life. How can these be addressed?
- b) Discern what your context's communal and individual gifts in evangelism may be. How can these be employed missionally?
- c) Create a system of accountability for leaders and the community that fits your context
- d) Strategize how to have testimony and life sharing be part of the community's culture

- e) Determine what contexts of the public your community needs to exercise biblical fluency. Articulate one bible passage that would support one specific demographic in speaking that bible passage in their everyday context

Total Length: 12 pages double spaced.

This requirement is related to outcomes 2 and 4.

Turnitin Text-Matching Software

Tyndale has a subscription to text-matching software called Turnitin. This software is used to ensure the originality of academic writing and to check that all of the sources used have been cited correctly. The instructor for this course will be using this software for the assignments that are submitted through your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca. When you submit your assignment, you will see a summary of your submission, which includes the file(s) that you submitted as well as a similarity report generated by Turnitin.

Below are some useful resources:

- Student Guides for Turnitin via classes.tyndale.ca course resource page
- Interpreting Similarity (Guide, Video, Spectrum)

F. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

G. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments:

Class Participation and Reading	10 %
Personal Evangelism Prep	25 %
Personal Evangelism Project	30 %
Community Integrative Project	35 %
Total Grade	100 %

H. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

1. Your work should demonstrate the following characteristics:

For proper citation style, consult the tip sheet, “Documenting Chicago Style” (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241 from the Chicago Manual of Style or reference the tip sheet, “How to Cite Sources in Theology”.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean’s Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

I. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
