

“The mission of Tyndale Seminary is to provide Christ-centred graduate theological education for leaders in the church and society whose lives are marked by intellectual maturity, spiritual vigour and moral integrity, and whose witness will faithfully engage culture with the Gospel.”

Course	LEARNING TO TEACH; TEACHING TO DISCIPLE CHED 0552 1A
Date and Time	JANUARY 8 – APRIL 5, 2024 ASYNCHRONOUS ONLINE
Instructor	YAU MAN SIEW, PhD Phone number: 416 226 6620 ext. 6750 Email: ysiew@tyndale.ca
Class Information	This course is designed to be asynchronous. Lectures are posted online so students can learn based on their own schedule; the same flexibility is built into the weekly forum discussions within the timeline parameters set out below. The professor plays an active role in moderating discussion, guiding research, and introducing topics and resources. Students may participate in live-streamed office hours/office chats as posted on the course schedule.
Course Material	Access course material at classes.tyndale.ca or other services at Tyndale One . Course emails will be sent to your @MyTyndale.ca e-mail account only.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides a vision for Christian education (CE) in the life and mission of the church. Drawing from key passages in the Bible and the wider field of education, learners will develop a biblical theology of CE and discipleship, be familiar with some learning theories (especially Jesus’ model), reflect on one’s growth as disciple and teacher, and develop a working framework for teaching. The major goal is to build strong theological and educational foundations for effective teaching and discipleship in personal life, church and mission.

Jesus' great commission is to "make disciples of all nations, baptizing ... and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded...." (Mt. 28:18-20, NRSV). Affirming this, Graham Cray stated that, "Churches have to realize that the core of their calling is to be disciple-making communities, whatever else they do; the primary purpose of Christian community is formation as disciples."¹ However, many pastors and ministry leaders do not fully grasp the nature or role of CE, and often lack basic understanding in teaching and curriculum theory. This course seeks to address this important need.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Outline a biblical theology of Christian education, see its role in teaching and discipleship in the church, and understand some of its challenges today.
2. Develop greater self-awareness and development as "disciple" and "teacher" through reflections on a biblical understanding of "discipleship," readings in Christian education, and review of the impact of past mentors (and their teaching values) in one's life.
3. Acquire a working knowledge of some important educational theorists (especially Jesus' model) for one's practice as pastor and ministry leader to form, renew and transform persons and flourishing kingdom communities in light of the Gospel.

This course seeks to meet the Master of Divinity learning outcome #4: "To develop & hone skills for theologically reflective ministry practice in its various forms."

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED READING

Morgan, Alison. Following Jesus: The Plural of Disciple is Church. Somerset, UK: ReSource, 2015. [This book is not available from any major book distributor in North America except Cornerstone Bookstore, which stocks textbooks for Tyndale. Order this book early.]

Edie, Fred P. and Mark A. Lamport. Nurturing Faith: A Practical Theology for Educating Christians. Grand Rapids, MI: William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, 2021. [Tyndale Library has an eBook with multi-user license (no purchase needed). You will read selected chapters.]

Palmer, Parker. The Courage to Teach: Exploring the Inner Landscape of a Teacher's Life. 20th anniversary edition. Hoboken, NJ: John Wiley & Sons, 1998/2017. [Tyndale Library has a 2012 edition as an eBook, which can be used.]

Selected articles and book chapters (posted on the course page on classes.tyndale.ca)

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

Smith, James K. A. You are What You Love. Brazos Press, 2016. [Smith's description of powerful cultural liturgies that shape our desires (eros) is timely, in light of our common "schooling model" of teaching and discipleship. We will read a chapter.]

Fernando, Ajith. Discipling in a Multicultural World. Wheaton, IL: Crossway Book, 2019. [Fernando, Director of Youth for Christ, Sri Lanka for most of his life, reflects on discipleship in different areas of personal, family, and church life in Sri Lanka.]

Seymour, Jack L. Teaching the Way of Jesus: Educating Christians for Faithful Living. Nashville, TN: Abingdon Press, 2014. [An illuminating work from a senior scholar which discusses CE in relation to reign of God and public life. Along with a survey of the different approaches, there is a strong focus Jesus' way and method.]

Groome, Thomas H. Will There Be Faith? A New Vision for Educating and Growing Disciples. Harper One, 2011. [We will study Groome's "shared Christian praxis" approach to teaching, which first appeared in his Christian Religious Education (HarperSanFrancisco/Jossey-Bass, 1980/1999), and remains a major theme in this book. Here, he outlines his vision of Christian religious education in the Roman Catholic tradition.]

Packer, J.I., and Gary Parrett. Grounded in the Gospel: Building Believers the Old-Fashioned Way. Grand Rapids: Baker Books, 2010. [A thorough and insightful study of catechesis as a way of teaching and faith formation for the church. We will refer to sections of this book.]

Tyndale recommends www.stepbible.org – a free and reputable online resource developed by Tyndale House (Cambridge, England) – for word searches of original-language texts, as well as for topical searches, interlinear texts, dictionaries, etc. Refer to the library for other online resources for Biblical Studies.

C. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

D. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Forum Discussions (4 forums + 1 conclusion X 5 = 25 % of grade)

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1, #2, and #3.

Students will engage in 4 forum discussions in Weeks 3, 5, 8, 10. Three compound questions will be posted for each forum. Students will post their response by 11:55 PM of Wednesday of that week. Your post should be about 250 words per question (total 750-800 words per forum). Each post should be concise, addressing the issues, supported by referenced direct quotations (readings and lectures), demonstrate critical thinking (questions or issues sparked by ideas), and with one application to your context. You will also post a brief response (3-4 lines) to each of your group members by 11:55 PM on Thursday of that week, affirming, seeking clarification of a point, or sharing from a personal experience.

On Friday of that week, one member of each group will write a “group conclusion” for their forum by 11:55PM. This conclusion will provide the following summary: (1) major points important to CE & discipleship; (2) questions/issues discussed; (3) practical applications. This conclusion should be about 300-350 words (marks deducted if exceed limit). Your group is responsible for establishing a schedule for conclusion writers. Each student will only write one conclusion for one forum in the course. You are not obliged to include late forum posts (after 11:55 PM, Wednesday) in your conclusion.

Penalty for late work:

Penalty for late posts would be a reduction of 1/3 of a grade for up to 3 hours late (e.g. from A to A minus or B+ to B). If post is between 3-6 hours late, grade reduction will be 2/3 of a grade (e.g. from A to B+ or B+ to B minus). More than this, penalty will increase with the same scale. If there is no post by 11:55 PM on Friday of the forum week, the student will receive a “zero” for that forum or group conclusion. If there are legitimate reasons for late posts or group conclusion (which meets what is stated in Seminary Academic Calendar 2023-24), the student needs to email the instructor directly.

Evaluation criteria: see “Grading Rubric for Forum Discussions” (on classes.tyndale.ca).

2. Reflection Papers on Edie & Lampport and Palmer (2 X 15 = 30 % of final grade)

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1 and #3.

For Edie & Lampport (2021)

- (a) Select three chapters in Edie and Lampport that are significant to you. Outline the major theme in each chapter, and supporting ideas (with direct referenced quotations).
- (b) Explain why these ideas are important to the teaching ministry and mission of the Church.
- (c) What insights/questions and applications do these major themes/ideas spark for you as pastor and/or ministry leader with responsibility for learning and discipleship at your church?

For Palmer (2012/2017)

- (a) Select three chapters in Palmer that are significant to you. Outline clearly the major theme in each chapter, and supporting ideas (with direct referenced quotations).
- (b) Explain why these ideas are important for you as a person who teach, mentor or influence others in church or other settings.
- (c) What insights/questions and applications about “teacher” and “teaching” do these themes/ideas spark for you?

Due Date:

Edie & Lampport reflection: Mar. 20, 2024 (2-3 pages, single-spaced).

Palmer reflection: Mar. 27, 2024 (2-3 pages, single-spaced).

Evaluation criteria: As above.

References for these reflections only need to state the pages at the end of the quotation (e.g. p. 23). No author name or year are needed.

3. Major Project (45 %)

Option A: Gifted Teacher

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #1 and #3.

You will interview a “gifted teacher” with substantial teaching experience in church or public setting (if you select a pastor, the emphasis is on “teaching” and not “preaching.”) You will ask this person to outline core values and practice in his/her teaching and how these were nurtured over the years. A list of questions for this interview is posted on the course page on classes.tyndale.ca and you should provide this to your interviewee a week ahead. If social distancing is preferred, a phone interview will suffice. A “statement of consent to participate in research interview” to be signed by the interviewee is posted on the course page on classes.tyndale.ca. This should be submitted along with this major project to the instructor.

Relate what you discover in this interview-research with insights from lectures and readings. Engage with your interviewee's comments, affirming insights shared with relevant direct referenced quotations from readings (Edie & Lamport, Morgan, Palmer, articles discussed), lectures, as well as raising issues/questions that were not discussed by your interviewee. Conclude with implications for your development and growth as pastor or teacher in your faith community.

Note: Select the person you interview carefully. S/he should be experienced and recognized for their teaching gift, so that you get some good data. If you interview a pastor, the focus of your conversation should be on "teaching" (interactive) and not "preaching" (proclamation).

Length: 7-8 pages, single-spaced.

Due date: April 8, 2024

Evaluation criteria: Posted on the course page on classes.tyndale.ca. Your major project will adopt the Chicago or APA style (footnotes preferred), submitted in MS Word (preferred, but PDF acceptable), with font size 12. An "A" piece of work should have at least 30 references (class readings, lectures).

Option B: My Growth as Disciple and Teacher-Mentor

This assignment is related to learning outcomes #2 and #3.

This assignment is an attempt to help you develop greater self-awareness of your growth as "disciple" and as "pastor/teacher-mentor."

To prepare, draw a time line of your life and highlight critical moments where your discipleship to Jesus deepened significantly. What happened? What aspects of your life were challenged? How do these aspects relate to what you learned about discipleship in Morgan? What other aspects of discipleship has Morgan raised for deeper self-reflection and growth (include direct referenced quotations from Morgan)?

In another section of the time line, highlight important teacher-mentors who impacted you. What struck you about the way they taught or mentored you? What values did they pass to you that were important for your development as pastor-teacher-mentor? How do these "teaching values" relate to what you learned about effective teachers and teaching in lectures and readings from Edie & Lamport, Palmer, articles discussed?

Length: 7-8 pages, single-spaced.

Due date: April 8, 2024

Evaluation criteria: Clear description of your development and growth as disciple and as pastor-teacher-mentor, with good engagement with Morgan, Tye, Palmer, Edie-Lamport, lectures and articles discussed. Your major project will adopt the Chicago or APA style (footnotes preferred), submitted in MS Word (preferred, but PDF acceptable), with font size 12. An "A" piece of work should have at least 30 references (class readings, lectures).

Note about all written assignments: I use the “review and track changes” feature in MS Word to grade all papers and find it easier when assignments are in single-spaced documents. Tyndale has an institutional license for MS Office 365, and all students can have a complimentary copy (contact IT). Please submit all your work in MS Word, with 12 font size (Word is preferred; PDF acceptable), and single-spaced.

E. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

F. SUMMARY OF ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Evaluation is based upon the completion of the following assignments:

Discussion forums: Individual posts & responses (4 X 5 = 20 %) Group conclusion (1 X 5 %)	25 %
Reflection papers Ede & Lamport and Palmer (2 X 15 %)	30 %
Major Project	45 %
Total Grade	100 %

G. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

All assignments are to be submitted via the course page on classes.tyndale.ca by 11:55PM on the due dates. Late assignments will be penalized, with the reduction of 1 mark for each day late, inclusive of Saturdays and Sundays. Late work will be graded but will not receive any comments from the instructor. Your major project will adopt the Chicago or APA style (footnotes preferred), submitted in MS Word (preferred; PDF acceptable), with font size 12.

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism (including improper use of artificial intelligence programs). Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Academic Integrity website for further details.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets.

For proper citation style, consult the tip sheet, “Documenting Chicago Style” (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241 from the Chicago Manual of Style or reference the tip sheet, “Citing Sources in Theology”.

The APA Style Guide is a helpful web site for all questions regarding APA style.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean’s Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

H. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student’s learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.

IV. COURSE SCHEDULE, CONTENT AND REQUIRED READINGS

This course is asynchronous. Lectures are posted online so you can learn based on your own schedule and complete the weekly forums within the timeline parameters. There will be three livestream (via Zoom) “lunch chats” on Tuesdays (after chapel; no classes) on Jan. 23, Feb. 27, and Mar. 26 (12:05-12:35 PM).^{*} Join me to share, pray, or ask Qs about the course. Attendance is not compulsory but I encourage you to attend at least one to build learning community.
