I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course involves a study of the dynamics of grief, death and dying in the context of family systems and their significance in human development throughout the life cycle. The course includes discussion of children and youth experiences of death, dying and grief. There is a special emphasis upon personal, familial, communal, spiritual and religious aspects of grief, death and dying and of resources available.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. examine a variety of theories of the grief process and assess, strategize, intervene, and evaluate therapeutic interactions relevant to their therapy or church context.
2. identify their own grief, death and dying experiences so that they can evaluate countertransference when encountering others' grief crises in their therapeutic ministry or counselling work contexts.
3. develop concrete and relevant clinical and pastoral interventions for grief in a family systems context.

III. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. REQUIRED READING

B. SUPPLEMENTARY / RECOMMENDED READING AND TOOLS

Tyndale recommends STEPBible – a free and reputable online resource developed by Tyndale House (Cambridge, England) – for word searches of original-language texts, as well as for topical searches, interlinear texts, dictionaries, etc. Refer to the library for other online resources for Biblical Studies.

C. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

1. Class attendance, class participation and readings of required text and journal articles as assigned in course schedule. (5% of final grade)

See course schedule for the reading that is expected to be completed before each class day. Note that for a couple of classes, there is a journal article or a chapter from an additional book to be read in addition to the assigned reading from the required text. The journal articles may be posted on the course page.

2. In Class Peer-Reviewed Group Work (15% of final grade)

At the beginning of the course the students will be put into groups which will remain the same throughout the semester. Each class the group will be given an assignment to work on together that puts into practice the theories being discussed that day. Each group will be given time to work through the assignment during class time and then present findings to the entire class. At the end of the semester, peers in each group will grade each other according to attendance, participation and contribution. A rubric and marking sheet will be handed out by the instructor at the beginning of the course.

3. Case Study on Family Systems and Grief (30% of Final Grade) Due: Wednesday March 4, 2026, at 11:59pm.

Students will write an 8-9 page (Double space, Times New Roman 12pt. APA or Chicago format, 6-8 references) case study for a family systems grief issue.

Part 1: (2-3 pages) Clearly and concisely describe a case study of a family experiencing grief. This case may come from a movie, TV show, book or personal experience. A list of movie ideas will be provided at the beginning of class. If you are using a personal experience, please remove all identifying information to ensure confidentiality and include in the description that this is a real case or person and that you have changed the names and identifying details to protect confidentiality.

Part 2: In addition to a written description of the case, please include your best attempt at a genogram, included as an appendix.

Part 3: (5-6 pages) Using the required readings, course material and other research, analyze this case using any Attachment, Family Systems, Family Life Cycle tenets/theories. Use the following questions as a guide:

- What is happening in this case?
- What type of loss(es) are being experienced?
- What are some important family systems tenets that must be kept in mind when working with this particular family?
- What family life cycle stage(s) is being impacted by this loss?
- How might a particular family life cycle stage(s) impact the loss?
- What meaning does the family make of this?

- What might be needed for this particular family to move to the next stage of the family life cycle successfully?
- Using the information presented in class, texts and other research, please indicate one or two evidence-based strategies/treatments/methods of support you could present to this family.
- Reflect critically on how you might journey with this family from a theological and spiritual perspective
- Reflect critically on how you might feel journeying with this family and what you might need to be aware of in yourself.

Part 4: Please include a second appendix with 2-3 resources you think might be helpful for this family (Ex. Websites, Support Groups, Books, etc.). Include a brief explanation of why you think these resources would be helpful. Please include proper citation.

4. Major Research Project and Class Presentation on Child/Adolescent Grief: 35% of final grade (30% for paper; 5% for presentation) Handout Due: In-Class March 13; Presentation Due: March 13, 27 (to be assigned); Paper Due: Wednesday April 1, 2025, 11:59pm

Students will write a 10-11 page research paper on a special topic encountered in child or adolescent grief (topics will be given in class).

2-3 Pages: Description and prevalence of the issue being presented. Cite required readings as well as sources and research that provide depth to the topic. Please include your own critical analysis of why this particular issue is significant.

Examples of questions to guide your description:

- What is the issue?
- Where is it most seen?
- In whom is it most seen?
- Symptomology?
- Nuances of the loss
- Nuances of the loss in selected age group

4-5 Pages: Apply the course material on the family system and child and adolescent development (Attachment Theory, Ericson, Piaget, etc.) and how this knowledge must be integrated when understanding the issue.

Examples of questions that you can use to answer:

- What are some important developmental issues that must be kept in mind when working with this particular issue at particular developmental stages?
- How might a particular developmental stage impact this issue differently than if the child/teen was in a different developmental stage?

- What might need to happen in order for this child or adolescent to be able to move past through this loss (on to next developmental stage/ family life stage)
- Consider this loss from a bio-psycho-social and theological perspective
- How might this loss and experience affect the child or adolescent's view of God? Why?
- What might you think the child or adolescent would benefit from to make sense of this type of loss from a spiritual perspective?

2-3 Pages: Provide one or two evidence-based interventions that have been shown to be effective as ways to support the child and/or adolescent as well as caregivers through the process. If you are not in a clinical setting, consider what you think might help a child or adolescent in a context that is familiar to you; research and present this (ie. programs for support in Sunday School, spiritual formation activities for children, etc.). Please feel free to include an appendix at the end of the paper with any resources that may be helpful

For Presentation:

3 Pages: Provide a summary of your major findings. The goal is to provide you classmates with information and resources that will be helpful for them and their ministry context.

The summary may include:

- Description and prevalence of the presenting issue
- Information on the developmental stage and family life cycle as it pertains specifically to this particular issue
- Succinct summary of evidence-based practical ways through which to companion the child/adolescent and caregivers and where to find this information as well as any resources

PLEASE NOTE: the purpose of this presentation is to help other students in the class gain working knowledge of the presenting issue as well as practical ways to companion through grief. Students will be marked on the creativity, clarity, and content of the presentation. A marking sheet will be distributed on the days of presentation. The presentation will be 15-20 minutes in length with 5-10 minutes for questions and discussion.

5. Personal Reflection Paper (15% of total grade) Due: Friday April 10, 2026, at 11:59pm

Students will write a 5-6 page personal reflection paper combining all the information they have learned over the course of the semester (Family systems, Attachment Theory, Developmental Stages, etc.).

The paper should answer the following questions:

- What is one of the most important "take aways" from this semester?
- Reflecting on my personality (bring in enneagram, MBTI, etc, if you wish), when companioning with someone through grief, what might I need to be aware of in myself (think about SEUS, self-awareness, transference and counter-transference, personal loss history).

- What might be something I will need to implement to take care of myself as I companion the bereaved (ex. Spiritual disciplines, exercise, personal counselling, etc.)
- What would I like to challenge myself to continue to learn (Further research, training, theological reflection, etc.)

VI. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL COURSES

A. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

B. REQUIREMENTS FOR LIVESTREAM INTERACTION (SYNCHRONOUS ONLINE COURSE ONLY)

- Livestream attendance for the entire duration of the class at announced times
- Headphones (preferred), built-in microphone, and web-camera
- Well-lit and quiet room
- Stable high-speed internet connection, preferably using an Ethernet cable over Wi-Fi
- Full name displayed on Zoom and Microsoft Teams for attendance purposes*

- A commitment to having the camera on to foster community building*
- exceptions with permission from professor

C. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

D. GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

Grading Rubric

Please consult the rubric provided for each assignment on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism (including improper use of artificial intelligence programs). Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Academic Integrity website for further details. Students must review the policies and procedures regarding Artificial Intelligence (AI) outlined in Academic Calendar and consult guidance from their course instructors.

For proper citation style, consult Citation Guides for different styles. Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services.

Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for policies and expectations on Attendance and Classroom Expectations, Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Turnitin Text-Matching Software

Tyndale has a subscription to Turnitin, a text-matching software that ensures the originality of academic writing and verifies the proper citation of all sources. The instructor for this course will use Turnitin for assignments submitted through your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca. Upon submission, you will receive a summary that includes your submitted files along with a similarity report generated by Turnitin. Please be aware that Turnitin can also detect AI-generated content from tools like Grammarly, so students should be mindful of when using such software. It's advisable to confirm with your instructor before using any AI tools into your assignments. Below are some useful resources:

- Student Guides for Turnitin via classes.tyndale.ca course resource page
- Interpreting Similarity (Guide, Video, Spectrum)

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (seminaryoffice@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

Late Papers and Extensions Policy

All papers and course assignments must be submitted by the due dates indicated in the course syllabus. Unless the instructor already has a policy on grading late papers in the course syllabus, grades for papers submitted late without an approved extension will be lowered at the rate of two-thirds of a grade per week or part thereof (e.g., from "A+" to "A-," from "B" to "C+"). Please note that some programs, such as cohort-based or intensive courses, may follow a different policy due to the nature of the program.

Faculty may not grant an extension beyond the last day of exams for the semester. Requests for extensions beyond this date must be addressed in writing to the Registrar by filling out the Extension Request Form. The application will be considered only in cases such as a death in the family, medical emergency, hospitalization of oneself or immediate family member or prolonged illness requiring treatment by a physician. Factors such as assignments for other courses, holidays, and technology-related difficulties are insufficient grounds for requesting an extension.

A temporary grade of incomplete ("I") may be granted by the Registrar. Once an extension is granted, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor and make satisfactory arrangements to complete the outstanding work. A grade of "F" will be recorded for students who do not complete the outstanding work by the deadline.

E. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential, and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.

F. LIBRARY RESOURCES

Tyndale Library supports courses with e-journals, e-books, and the mail delivery of books and circulating materials. See the Library FAQ page.

G. GRADING SYSTEM & SCALE

For each course's grading rubric, please refer to your course syllabus or classes.tyndale.ca. For general grading guidelines, refer to Seminary Grading System & Scale.
